

The ancient Greeks had the Oracle of Delphi.
College students have Wikipedia.
You have the AAUP Contract Database.

UNION MEMBERS, MEET YOUR BARGAINING TEAM'S NEW BEST FRIEND . . .

The CBC Contract Database is a benefit of your chapter's membership in the AAUP-CBC. The database is an online searchable collection of all of our chapters' collective bargaining agreements. Designed with an easy-to-use Google™ interface, it lets you find information on hundreds of different contract items as they've been interpreted and negotiated in dozens of academic labor contracts around the country.

- Want to know how other locals have dealt with issues like salary compression or access to personnel files?
- Need to compare grievance procedures among collective bargaining chapters in your state?
- Looking for variations on the theme of post-tenure review?

The contract database can help. Simply plug in a search term, and the database will give you access to hundreds of documents in order of relevancy. It's a useful, efficient tool for gathering comparative information about academic bargaining agreements.

The database is a password-protected system that is regularly updated by AAUP staff. For more information on how to take advantage of this valuable resource, please contact Jennifer Nichols at jnichols@aaup.org.

The AAUP Contract Database: Search. Learn. Negotiate.

A service paid for by CBC membership dues.

AAUP

American Association of University Professors

Academic Freedom for a Free Society